

LOCAL MEN WILL FEATURE CONCERT

Composition by Schaunroeck and Trombone Solo by John Kuhn at Band Recital.

Elbel's weekly band concerts at the court house square will be featured by another composition by Peter Schaunroeck and a trombone solo by John Kuhn Saturday night. Mr. Kuhn will play the New York success, "To Have, to Hold, to Love," which made such a hit at Howard park last Sunday.

Mr. Schaunroeck's latest composition is a march and will open the program. Had Mr. Schaunroeck the benefit of publicity in the musical world he would surely become immensely popular. But it is hard to break into the "big time." As an illustration Barnum & Bailey circus band featured the "Victors" march by Louis Elbel. Considering that the composition has been in print for many years it must be of unusual merit to be featured by such an organization at this late day.

Another number which should prove unusually popular on Saturday evening is "My Old Kentucky Home" in variations, every section of the band alternating in different tempos from the piccolo to the bass.

The complete program for Saturday evening is as follows:

March, Local Pride, P. Schaunroeck
Overture, "Fest in C" Gilmore's arrangement
Trombone Solo, "To Have, to Hold, to Love" E. Ball
Afr. Vari. "My Old Kentucky Home" Dalbey
Innovation "A Soldier's Song" Bailey
Spanish Serenade "La Paloma" Yradier
Finale "Selected" Elbel, Conductor.

8-HOUR WOMAN'S BILL BROUGHT UP

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The preliminary skirmish in a great congressional fight to emancipate working women from long hours through a Federal eight-hour law, was held Friday before the house labor committee.

Consideration was begun of a bill limiting employment of women in all mills, factories and manufacturing establishments to eight hours a day with a maximum limit of 48 hours labor per week. Rep. Taylor, of Colorado, author of the measure, introduced Friday before the labor committee.

Taylor's bill reaches the railroad rather than employers. Its principal provision is that railroads cannot accept for industrial work any goods so made by women. The penalty is a fine of $1,000 and imprisonment of one year.

In addition, the bill requires factory owners to file semi-annual accident reports with the department of labor, showing a "clean bill of health" toward the women employees, under penalties of fines of $20,000 and a year's imprisonment.

EXACT CAUSE OF FIRE NOT FIXED

Clerk at Clothing Factory at Binghamton Tells of Seeing Blaze Where Rubbish Had Been Stored.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 25.—

Interest in the Bingham Clothing Co. fire, which Tuesday afternoon resulted in the loss of the lives of many girl garment workers, shifted Thursday to the public inquest conducted by Coroner R. A. Seymour. Representatives of several public bodies were in attendance and the investigation early resolved itself into a general probe.

Amrose Fuller, shipping clerk of the burned factory, testified that he discovered the fire on a wooden ledge in the stairway between the first and second floors, where a quantity of "robe cloth," or plush, and old books were stored. The exact cause of the fire was not fixed.

It was brought out from other witnesses that the fire escapes were never used in conducting fire drills; that the usual fire alarm, a succession of orderly bell taps, was not given, but that the alarm was sounded by a prolonged ringing of the fire alarm.

The lines formed, however, without disorder and the operatives marched out quickly with no crowding on the stairs.

The fire escape was in good working order, but flames from the windows made it impossible to use them with safety. Each inmate said smoking was strictly prohibited in the factory.

Thus far 41 persons are known to have died as a result of the fire.

TRANSFER MUTINOUS CONS FROM SING SING

Dangerous Situation Saved by Warden's Nerve—Jail Delivery Was Feared.

OSSENING, N. Y., July 25.—One hundred and fifty mutinous convicts, shackled together, were transferred from Sing Sing prison to the state prison at Auburn Friday.

There was no disorder, though it was feared that a general delivery might be attempted.

Never in the history of the famous prison have such a large number been enacted as have marked the past week. Two incendiary fires have been started and only by a wonderful display of nerve, taking one crowd of mutinous convicts into returning to their cells, did Warden Clancy prevent an uprising two days ago.

LATE EDITOR'S FIANCEE IS SUFFERING FROM SHOCK
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Miss Fay Murphy, fiancée of Editor Earl Hasley of the Elmhurst, Ill., Gazette, who was killed in an automobile accident Thursday, is under the case of physicians Friday, suffering a severe nervous shock. The couple were to have been married Aug. 10.

DOCTORS MISTAKES COSTLY TO PATIENT

No Doctor Should Treat a Patient Unless He is Positive He Understands the Case.

It doesn't cost a doctor very much to make a mistake. He may lose a patient or two, and thereby lose a few dollars. But compare this trifling cost to what the doctor's mistake often costs the patient. It may cost the patient his life—or what perhaps is worse than death, cause him to live a life of disease and misery, when under good treatment he could have been cured and thereby restored to happiness and usefulness.

Perhaps two-thirds of the mistakes of doctors is in the matter of diagnosis—they don't examine the patient thoroughly—they simply look at the tongue, feel the pulse, ask a few questions, guess at the rest and give the patient a bottle of medicine or a prescription to get rid of him. Or even if the doctor has sufficient ambition to give the patient a real examination, or perhaps lacks the knowledge or experience to find the real cause of the disease, so he goes along in a slipshod way, treating the symptoms. And as symptoms are the result and not the cause of disease, the patient is treated for symptoms and can surely expect to grow worse instead of better.

One of the principal reasons for the wonderful success of the United Doctors, who have their South Bend Institute located on the 2nd floor of the Toepf building on S. Main st., opposite the post office, is the fact that they always determine the real cause of disease before they attempt to treat it. Their vast experience in diagnosis, coupled with scientific knowledge, enables them to ascertain the cause of a disease with unerring accuracy. They never treat symptoms, but by treating the cause they stamp out the disease at its fountain head.

A case in point is that Mrs. Oberst, who writes as follows:

"Six weeks ago when I entered your institute for free examination, and your physician chief told me that I had catarrh of the stomach, which was the cause of my heart trouble and nervousness, and that a cure was only a question of time. I had been skeptical, but I had been troubled with my heart for four years, and was nervous for eight years, and since I had been treated by various doctors for heart trouble and nervousness I supposed that I had a bad heart trouble. But your specialist explained that the catarrhal condition of my stomach had reflected through my nervous system and consequently affected my heart. I was very nervous all the time, so much so in fact that the least noise excited me extremely. It seemed that my nerves were continually on tension, and I suffered so much with palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath that I was unable to do my work."

"Since beginning your treatment I have derived such great benefit that I am now convinced that the doctor was right about my stomach being the cause of my heart trouble. I am no longer nervous and do not have any more trouble with my heart. In fact I am feeling fine, and doing all of my work. I have a good appetite, sleep fine, and feel like a different person."

"As I understand the healing art, the first principle in treating a disease is first find out the cause, and I believe the secret of the United Doctors' success is in a thorough examination to determine the cause of the disease. This they do and give them an advantage over a great many doctors who take too much for granted by looking at the tongue and feeling the pulse."

"In conclusion I wish to say to my friends and the public that if you have any chronic disease which is sapping your vitality and life away, and have despaired of ever regaining your health, don't give up, but consult these expert specialists in chronic diseases, the United Doctors, and if they tell you there is hope you may believe it."

Gratefully,
Mrs. O. V. Oberst,

DIABETES YIELDS IN HOSPITAL

Place—Good Samaritan's Hospital in Dawson City, Yukon Territory, Alaska. Patient—G. A. Hatch, a business man of Dawson.

Case—Diabetes, believed to be incurable the world over.

Prognosis—Hopeless, not only because physicians consider it so, but the condition of the patient was so extreme that death was believed to be not far away.

A friend of Hatch's, by the name of E. S. Strait, auctioneer of Dawson, heard about his plight, and called upon him. Strait told Hatch that five years ago he was in the same fix and sent to California for Fulton's Diabetic Compound, and it restored him to business. He stated that he kept some of it on hand and would loan Hatch some till more could be had from San Francisco.

To the surprise of the doctor, nurses and Hatch's friends he was soon able to leave the hospital. Instead of being in his grave, as was fully expected, four months later found him on a visit to his old home in Portland, Maine.

Passing through San Francisco he called at our office and gave us this item in person.

If you have diabetes and are over fifty years of age you owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Diabetic Compound before giving up. You can get it at Woods & Stride's.
